Goalkeeper Zackory Campagnolo was named to the U.S. U-20 Men's National team roster for their upcoming international training camp in Bansko, Bulgaria. Zack also participated in a UEFA U-19 Friendly Tournament in Wrexham, Wales, led by coach Gus Teren, the camp served as preparation for the 2027 FIFA U-20 World Cup qualification. The camp was days after Campagnolo led the Colorado Rapids 2 to the Western Conference Championship in MLS Next Pro. He was also called up to the U.S. Under-19 Men's National Team for an international training camp in Marbella, Spain. The team had wins against Germany, Japan, Northern Ireland, and Belgium.

At the international level, Campagnolo joined the U-19s at the beginning of September for a domestic training camp in Fayetteville, Georgia. In October the goalkeeper appeared in two matches for the nation's U-18 team at the UEFA Friendship Cup, where the team captured a first-place finish during the tournament.

Campagnolo has accumulated 19 appearances across multiple youth levels, including U-20, U-19, two with the U-18s, one with the U-17s, four with the U-16s, and three with the U-15s. He has also been called up to each of those sides for training camps over the past five years. He made his international debut with the U-15s at the 2022 Torneo delle Nazioni in Italy, where he played against Slovenia, Italy, and Portugal, earning Man of the Match honors for his performance against Italy. Campagnolo was also called in October 2023, Called Up to the U17 World Cup in Indonesia

Since his 2024 debut, Campagnolo, 19, has become a consistent presence for Rapids 2 making 31 appearances with 30 starts. Campagnolo has logged 2,701 minutes in his MLS NEXT Pro career and is two appearances away from tying the Rapids 2 club record for most appearances by a goalkeeper. With 107 saves, Campagnolo holds the record for most goalkeeper saves in club history.

The goalkeeper signed his first professional contract with Colorado on March 1, 2025. At the conclusion of the two-year contract, Campagnolo will join the first team as a Homegrown player with a contract through 2028 with club options for 2029 and 2030.

During his time with Orlando, the goalkeeper had the opportunity to train with Sporting Portugal in Lisbon, Portugal, in 2022 and Germany's FC Schalke 04 in Gelsenkirchen, Germany, in 2023.
